ORDER

14 Before the court is defendant Beth Lanza's Motion on Terms of Probation (Doc. #305), to 15 which the Government responded in opposition (Doc. #306). In its Amended Judgment (Doc. #254)
16 the court imposed a five-year term following defendant's incarceration with the special condition 17 that "[t]he defendant . . . be restricted from engaging in employment, consulting, or any association 18 with the mortgage business for a period of five years." The sentence imposed was appropriate for 19 the seriousness of the offense and affords adequate deterrence and protection to the public from 20 further criminal conduct by defendant. Defendant Lanza's Motion on Terms of Probation 21 (Doc. #305) is denied. However, the court grants leave for defendant to reapply at the end of three 22 years of supervised release.
